SOCIETY

An event of social importance today is a bridge-luncheon given at the Country club by Mrs. Charles Barnes, complimenting her house guests, the Brownes of Chicago, who is being entertained at a number of parties, including some very small, informal affairs.

There were guests for ten tables at the party this afternoon. The luncheon table in the club house dining room was decorated with rustic baskets, filled with Black Eyed Susan blossoms. The place cards bore the same decoration. After luncheon the guests played cards in the parlors and porches.

The guest of honor wore a gown of Georgette crepe and net of pink and white. The hostess's gown was of white mull embroidered in pink. Out-of-town guests at the party were: Mrs. Loverin, Mrs. James Hurley of Washington, D. C., who is visiting at the R. J. Parker home, Mrs. Frank Blackmar of Lawrence, who is the house guest of Mrs. Alfred Frost, and Mrs. George Esterly of Lawrence, who is visiting Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Esterly.

Mrs. Anna J. Wilson was hostess at an informal afternoon at bridge today for her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Turley of Muskogee, Okla., who has been visiting her the past few weeks. About a dozen guests attended.

Mr. Jerome Beatty, who has been writing sport news for the Evening Mail, New York, under the name of Unofficial Scorer, has accepted a position in the New York Tribune. He is the son of Mrs. Nellie Beatty of Lawrence, and has many friends in Topeka. The family lived at one time in this city. He is a graduate of the Kansas University. His newspaper career began on a Kansas City paper. Last spring he married Miss Dorothea McKnight, of Junction City, who is also a university graduate. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty will visit in Lawrence in September.

Miss Louise McGoff will entertain her sewing club Wednesday of this week, at her home in Lane street.

A very smart morning costume is this combining a striped brown and white skirt with a plain linen jacket. The skirt is wide and perfectly plain, the stripes about an inch wide. The jaunty jacket is a plain tan linen with high waistline and scalloped in square outline to a depth of three inches. Over the collar of linen so wide as to be almost a cape is laid another and similar collar of ecru organza. With this smart suit is worn a wide brimmed picture hat of black straw trimmed in small velvet oranges.

The story comes from Ocean Park, Cal., of a "sprint ceremony" wedding. The ceremony is one that was never before used outside of the Arctic Circle, so far as is known. Miss Selalok, an Eskimo belle, of Etah, Greenland, was married to Mr. Kauvechna, a wealthy merchant of that place, by the Rev. Baker E. Lee, rector of a fashionable Los Angeles church.

The bride and bridegroom are both members of the Eskimo colony of Ocean Park. The first feature of their wedding was the issuance of invitations inscribed on the skins of short haired seals. In these "bids," Mr. Kauvechna modestly calls himself the richest man in the world, his loads of treasure being measured only in terms of codfish, blubber and whale oil. He sent these invitations to the movers of all cities near Ocean Park.

On the happy wedding day the

TODAY'S BEAUTY HINTS

To whiten and beautify the complexion permanently we have found no better preparation than a lotion made by dissolving four ounces of spumax in a half pint of hot water, then adding two teaspoonfuls glycerin. This removes any pimples, shiny, muddy or sallow appearance, and will make any one's skin clear, smooth and velvety. It does not show or rub off like powder; in fact, it seems a part of the skin; and for removing tan and freckles is unequalled.

It is necessary to shampoo more frequently in the warmer weather because of excessive dust and the fact that the head perspires more and is usually more exposed to the weather. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers can be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox, obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water. This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as very beneficial to scalp and hair. After rinsing, the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Adv.

couple was joined by Rev. Mr. Lee in the most approved, legal American fashion. But that was only the beginning.

Next Mr. Kauvechna had to overhaul his bride in a root race. Until he had done that, they were not wed, in the estimation of the Esquimaux.

So the race was on! The bride sprinted. The bridegroom sprinted. She ducked and dodged—right into his arms!

A beautiful blouse in the new crepe chiffon decorated in rose pattern is shown above. The fronts are softly gathered into the shoulder and open over a vest of the white chiffon bordered with rose pink crepe de chine—of this also the collar is cut.

The long sleeves are shirred into a cuff and the shirring held by folds of pink crepe de chine, a ruffle of the chiffon falling over the hand.

A party of women will go to Lakeview this week to entertain a week or ten days, the company will be Mrs. A. J. Cole, Mrs. Frank Edson, Mrs. H. H. Hazlett and Mrs. Charles L. Mitchell.

Word has been received from Mrs. Estella Day of Topeka who is spending some months in Relay, Md., with her sister, Mrs. Day, who is in the campaign now being conducted in Maryland. She is working in the campaign while she is in the state, and she has sent back some clippings that tell of the progress of the work and the obstacles the workers meet. She has asked the Good Government club to furnish some of the literature they used in the Kansas campaign. Mrs. Day says that the people of Maryland are not at all in favor of the amendment to the national constitution, granting suffrage to women all over the country, which is the idea of the National Suffrage congress, now being held in San Francisco. They look upon such a movement from the state rights standpoint, and find it impossible to endorse that method.

Mrs. Day will return home as soon as she leaves her sister, who was injured in an accident, and is just recovering.

A porch party was given this morning by Miss Juliet Hughes, at her home, 235 Greenwood avenue, in honor of Miss Vivian Roberts of Oskaloosa. A breakfast was served on the porch, covers being laid for Miss Roberts, Miss Marian Squire, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Nellie Thompson, Miss Thelma Huston, Miss Hughes, Mr. Glen Davis, Mr. Harry Bone, Mr. George Greenwood, Mr. Donald Lindell, Mr. Edwin Nellis, Mr. Byron Boone, Mr. Warren Colledge, Mr. Carroll Ganshouse, Mr. Bert Koenig, Colonel and Mrs. J. W. F. Hughes.

Evelyn Bair gave a party this afternoon in celebration of her fourteenth birthday anniversary. Her guests were Olive Crane, Bernice Long, Grace Lindemuth, Opal Leeson, Elaine Hudson, Ruth Thoroman, Hazel Houser, Elma Harper, Hazel Houser, Annabel Eyer and Mary Van Horn.

Notes and Personal Mention.

How to Beautify a Summer Soiled Face

It's really a simple matter to renovate a face soiled by sun, winds or dirt. Ordinary mercialized was, used like cold cream, will transform the worst old complexion into one of snowy whiteness and velvet softness. It literally peels off the outer veil of surface skin, but so gently, gradually, there's no discomfort. The brown skin comes off, not in patches, but evenly, in tiny particles, leaving no evidence of the treatment. The younger, clearer, under-skin forming the new complexion, is one of captivating loveliness. One ounce of mercialized wax, to be had at any drugstore, is enough to remove any tanned, reddened, pimpled, freckled or blotchy skin before retiring, washing it off morning.

Many skins wrinkle easily with every wind that blows, with heat, worry, etc. An excellent wrinkle remover, because it tightens the skin and strengthens relaxed muscles, is a wash lotion made as follows: Powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, 1 pt. This gives immediate results.—Adv.
